Cycling infrastructure

Course description

This course presents information and recommendations about the design of urban streets (sharing of road space) and the design of cycling infrastructure to improve safety.

Target audience

Those who are relatively new to cycle infrastructure design who want to increase the share of cycling in their urban modal split and design safe cycling infrastructure

Thematic area

Non-motorised transport

Please click here to find the course.

Date of release

2015

Associated with project

SOLUTIONS